Acardia Shores Hearth Pad with Riser shown

AJ-BRN Brownstone

AJ-SMK Smoke

UNI-PAD is a high-quality, attractive hearth pad. The cut corner design can be used for many installations. It is sized for gas and pellet stoves. The frame is medium finish oak. Tiles used for it are 1/4" thick and neatly cemented in place with a matching grout. There is an optional wood riser that is 3.5" high and is finished in medium oak.
